

York Janitorial Supplies & Equipment

A clean place of business doesn't just happen automatically. It takes a good janitor or two, hard work, efficiency ... plus good products, replenished frequently. It's the "good products" part where Robert York comes in.

York is owner and president of York Janitorial Supplies & Equipment, a distribution company for janitorial supplies. His 21 years of experience in this area pays off for his customers. A veteran-owned business, York works closely with facility directors and managers.

"What makes us different from other companies is that we outperform the competition by providing superior service and ensuring 100 percent customer satisfaction," York says.

His customers are well-stocked in items including cleaning products, soap dispensers, gloves, paper products and more.

"When you work with our company, you are working with a team that is dedicated to completing all facility objectives within the scope of work," York says.

The company endeavors to serve customers following the 6S Lean Workplace model: Sort, Set-in-Order, Shine, Standardize, Sustain and Safety.

York Janitorial serves customers throughout south central Oklahoma and beyond. York is most proud of the consultation work with his customers in sectors including manufacturing, education, retail, government, automotive, transportation and health care. His customers include the City of Pauls Valley,

City of Davis, Seth Wadley Auto Group, Covercraft, Mac Trailers of Oklahoma, Cedar Ridge Residential Hospital.
